

Site Name	Site Description	Contact Information
ABA Learning Centre	ASD Summer Jamboree (Summer Camp) – age 6-14 (typical siblings accepted)	604 232 4122 or joseph@abacentre.ca
All 4 Dance Dance Studio	Ballet and Jazz dance classes for special needs students.	604 576 8161
Autism BC	For students in an ABA home program K to 12, based in Surrey.	604 434 0880 (ext. 107)
Autism Okanagan	To improve the quality of life for individuals and families living with autism by providing information, resources, education, training, programs and activities in an autism-friendly environment throughout the Okanagan.	250 826 7051 or info@autismokanagan.ca
BC Easter Seals Camps	Overnight camps for children and teens (age 6-18) with physical and mental disabilities. Two camp sites: Camp Winfield (Okanagan Valley), Camp Shawnigan (Vancouver Island).	604 873 1865 or camp@lionsbc.ca
Burquitlam Child Care Centre	Group child care program with camps during the Summer. Children with special needs welcome!	604 421 2919
Canucks Autism Network Overnight Camp	3-Day/2-Night camp for participants with autism ages 6+ yrs to enjoy an unforgettable outdoor experience! Activities at camp include ocean swimming, rock climbing, campfires, and more!	604 685 4049 or info@canucksautism.ca
Challenger Baseball	Throughout the lower mainland, Challenger Baseball helps kids with cognitive or physical disabilities experience the joy of baseball through participation at a level structured for their abilities. Challenger gives kids a chance to be ball players and parents the opportunity to be spectators and cheerleaders. Season runs April-June.	baseball.bc.ca/challenger

Children Over 6	This program is designed for children who require skill development in the areas of social etiquette, friend building, conflict resolution and life skills. Services are provided on a 2 to 1 ratio (2 children per 1 adult). The program runs 12 week blocks, three times per year, after school.	604 852 2686
Cineplex Sensory Friendly Screenings	Cineplex Entertainment in partnership with Autism Speaks Canada is delighted to present Sensory Friendly Screenings. This program provides a sensory friendly environment for individuals with autism spectrum disorder or anyone for whom the environment is suitable and their families to view new release films in theatres across the country. To confirm locations, please click your local theatre's webpage to see Sensory Friendly showtimes. Please note that participating locations are subject to change due to the availability of films in markets.	https://www.cineplex.com/Theatres/SensoryFriendly
Daybreak Consulting	Mornings focus on essential skills required to transition back to school after summer. Afternoons are all about fun and authentic opportunities to practice social skills with peers.	604 721 9506 or daybreak@yahoo.ca
ET Music Therapy	ET Music Therapy is based on one simple principle: Music is one of the most motivating and effective mediums for building strong connections with individuals with autism and other special needs.
Eureka Outdoor Camp	Eureka Outdoor Camp is unique in B.C., specifically for children and adolescents with invisible disabilities.	604 520 1155 or info@eurekaczmp.ca
Family Centred Practices Group	Family Centred Practices Group designs and monitors intervention programs for families with young children who have been diagnosed with an autism spectrum disorder or related disability. Family Centred Practices Group is delighted to announce we are Canada's first and only Behavioural Health Center of Excellence (BHCOE).	604 736 0094 Suite 210 – 1820 Fir Street Vancouver, BC V6J 3B1

Fawkes Academy	The mission of Fawkes Academy is to provide individualized educational programs for children and adolescents with autism spectrum disorder, other complex developmental disabilities, or different learning needs.	604 261 8782
Friend 2 Friend	Social Learning Society.	604 528 0560 or friend2friend@shaw.ca
Game Changers	The BC Lions and Pacific Autism Family Network are creating a first in the Canadian Football League. The two organizations have joined forces to take steps at providing fans on the Autism Spectrum a more comfortable experience by creating the GAMECHANGERS program. Together, they aim to ensure that families affected by Autism Spectrum Disorder can attend, have a better experience, and cheer on their CFL team at all home games at BC Place.	604 930 5469 or jcartmell@bclions.com
Get your STEM on!	To help families enjoy TELUS World of Science, they are pleased to offer a storybook to help families prepare their children for the experience so they know what to expect. They have quiet locations for breaks and staff can help make adjustments wherever possible for a more optimal time spent exploring the magic of science. Resources have been developed in partnership with the Canucks Autism Network.	https://www.scienceworld.ca/universal-accessibility-wonder
Gymnastics BC Play	Many PLAY Gymnastics BC clubs have programs for children with autism. They may be integrated into recreational gymnastics classes, take part in specialized programs or benefit from one-on-one sessions.	http://www.playgymnastics.com/gymnastics-programs-for-autism/
Kick It Taekwondo	Kids with disabilities thrive in a setting where all students must respect one another and their instructors. The memorization and focus that are a part of every class helps kids with special needs test the limits of their abilities.	604 372 2822 or greg@kickitbc.com

Kids Clubs	Special needs activities for children in Vancouver, Burnaby, Coquitlam, Port Coquitlam, Surrey, Richmond, North Vancouver, West Vancouver, Port Moody, Pitt Meadows, Mission, Maple Ridge, Delta and Abbotsford areas.	604 312 0064 or info@kidsclubs.ca
Langley Community Music School	LCMS provides music therapy and benefit people of all ages, abilities and musical backgrounds.	604 534 2848 or info@langleymusic.com
Langley Gymnastics	Based on the fundamental movement patterns of Gymnastics, this program can provide tremendous benefits for children with special needs.	604 455 8845 or info@langleygymnastics.ca
L.I.F.E. Program	The L.I.F.E. program helps young adults with disabilities make the transition to greater independence by providing new skills and hands-on opportunities for growth and personal development.	604 688 3603 or gthompson@marchofdimes.ca
Make a Splash!	Explore the Vancouver Aquarium with ease thanks to a photographic preview option on their website so kids with sensory challenges can check things out ahead and know what to expect from their day. They also have noise-reducing ear muffs available for lend on a first come first serve basis. Should your child go missing, they offer comprehensive search services to efficiently reunite families.	https://www.vanaqua.org/visit/during-your-visit/accessibility
Monarch House	Some individuals with ASD and other neurodevelopmental/behavioural disabilities will attain greater outcomes in a real life setting - our social and peer groups can help achieve these goals. Social skills have been directly linked to academic and relationship success.	https://www.monarchhouse.ca/contact-us
Options	Using an individualized approach, one-to-one workers will create purposeful community outings to help your child reach their goals in community involvement, life skills, social skills, communication and appropriate behaviour.	604 596 4321 (ext 1105) or daniel.ancil@options.bc.ca
Pacific Autism Family Network	A network of excellence and supports for individuals and families affected by Autism Spectrum Disorder.	604 207 1980

Pacific Riding for Developmental Abilities	Therapeutic horseback riding day program.	604 530 8717
PALS Autism Society	Special Education School in New Westminster.	604 251 7257
Parent Driven Autism Services	We specialize in supporting families with neurodiverse children and youth. We combine counselling and neurofeedback training with goals of improving self-regulation, communication, and socialization, which results in less stress for parents and allows for a deeper connection with their child. Our services at SOS Children's Village BC are designed to assist children and youth ages 6-24 years, but we work with all ages.	604 574 2964 (ext. 106) or dougwest@sosbc.ca
Parent Support Services Society of BC	Parent Support Services Society offers a Support Line for Kinship Caregivers, Facilitation Training and Parenting Workshops. We operate Support Circles, across BC, for those in a parenting role. These Support Circles (run in English, Spanish, Mandarin, Cantonese, Filipino & Korean) include Circles for: grandparents raising their grandchildren and other kinship caregivers; parents of children on the autism spectrum, Indigenous communities; parents of children who are trans or gender creative; and more.	1 877 345 9777
Pedalheads	Pedalheads Bike Camps (age 4-12+).	604 874 6464
Posabilities	Summer camp for people with developmental disabilities.	604 291 1902
RNB Dance	RNB Dance believes dance should be fully accessible to all individuals, able bodied or those of special needs, to help them explore their own potential and deepen their understanding of the arts through their experience in movement with them.	604 980 3040 or info@rnbdance.ca

Sensory Night	Sensory Night is a very special program designed for jumpers and families who live with Autism, Downs Syndrome, Cerebral Palsy, ADD, ADHD, and any other sensory disorder can enjoy the FUN of Sky Zone as a sanctuary for all. We don't play any music, we don't use whistles, and our Staff that has been trained by the Canucks Autism Network will be available to help out in a variety of ways.	https://www.skyzone.com/ca-surrey/programs/sensory-hours
Share Family & Community Services	SHARE Family & Community Services groups for children and youth not only provide learning opportunities, develop motor skills, but also enables each child to experience interaction and a connection with their peers, in a safe environment that teaches appropriate social practice.	604 540 9161
Silver Lake (Peachland)	Introduction to camp is June 29, 9-12 year olds, July 19-20 (two full days, one night), August 6-8, 12-15 year olds (three full days, two nights).	604 308 2820 or russ@silverlakecamp.net
Sirota's Alchymy	Martial Arts program for children, teens, and adults with special needs.	604 569 3395 or sirota@SirotasAlchymy.com
Skilled Kids OT	OT Skills Training.	604 921 4853 or ot@skilledkids.com
Soccer for Everyone	Offered on Vancouver's North Shore, this program has an affordable 10-week program for families with developmental or physical disabilities.	admin@northshoresocceracademy.com
Special needs schools in British Columbia	British Columbia is home to many of the top special needs independent or private schools in Canada. BC's biggest cities, Victoria and Vancouver, offer a plethora of support systems for sending your child with special needs to one of the best independent or private schools. Other cities, including Kelowna, Surrey, Burnaby, Richmond, Coquitlam and Port Coquitlam, do as well.	https://www.ourkids.net/special-needs-schools-bc.php

Special Olympics	With programs for children and families starting at age two, this program offers help to families with a variety of special needs. They help kids learn valuable physical literacy skills that will help get them ready for school and a physically active springboard start at life.	604 519 4555
1 Step Ahead Services	Interactive Group Program	info@1stepahead.ca
Surf's Up for Autism	Surf's Up is a lower mainland organization that plans an annual surfing fun day in Tofino for kids with autism. Children and families living with autism come together and enjoy a day out on the beach and in the water surfing. It's an incredibly positive, joyful, and inclusive event.	https://www.supasociety.net/contact.html
The YMCA Camp	Camps with integrated programs for special needs.	604 939 9622 or camps@vaymca.org
TLC Special Needs Youth Program	Programs for youth age 13-18 with mild to moderate developmental disabilities including autism.	778 723 0020
Unique Get Together Society	Community, financial and online resources for children and families in BC.	236 317 3153 or registration@ugts.ca
We Play	Full day camp participants will go offsite to the local park in the mornings for games, activities and snack or lunch, if weather permits. At the Centre, the kids will be engaged in multi sensory active & quiet play activities with a daily take home craft. Teamwork, inclusivity and fun are a primary focus at We Play!	604 385 2883 or info@weplaykids.com
Zajac Ranch	ASD Camps (ages 7-17) Week 1: July 22-26, Week 2: August 12-16.	604 739 0444 or info@zajacranch.com